i30 N 2017-2020

PART NO: HYS MT00 • CHASSIS CODE: PD

Being stuck in morning traffic should be the best part of your day. Why, you might wonder? When the traffic breaks up, the road is your playground. The only people who grow old are the ones who forget to nourish their inner child. You're never too old for speed, and with Öhlins shock absorber for Hyundai i30 N, the race track is around every corner. The Hyundai i30 N is already packed with power, and together with our application you'll take your ride to a whole other level. It's about time to turn mundane drives into blissful thrills.

The Hyundai i30 N shock absorber features the unique Öhlins Dual Flow Valve (DFV) technology, for a quick change in stiffness and better handling of small bumps. Take on every curb effortless and become one with the track. Together with Öhlins Road & Track coil overs you'll achieve cutting edge response time, improved bump absorption, and increased safety. Challenge the speed limit while remaining in complete control. The road is yours to conquer.
